NEW BODY BLOW BEATS WILLARD

Professor Byrne, of Toledo A. C., Claims He Taught Dempsey New Punch.

Toledo, Ohio, July 16,-Prof. James Byrne, of the Toledo Athletic Club, is said to have taught Dempsey a new body blow which won for him the heavy-weight crown. The blow, which it required Prof. Byrne weeks to teach the now heavy-weight king to perfect, is new in the annals of the prize ring and is wo singles and a double.

The Sox were the first to score. Leibold strolled and Collins was safe on Shanks' fumble. Weaver Goreed Nemo and when Jackson poled a single to right, Collins scored. Erickson singled in the third, advanced on Collins' boot and an interference play and scored the tying run when Schalk muffed Feisch's throw at the plate.

The bombardment of the Sox by Griff's artillery was started by Picinich in the fourth inning. Val singled to center, Shanks sacrificed and when Janvrin smashed a double to left, Another bombardment and the most decimating of all followed in the sixth. With Danforth and Lynn in the points for Chicago, Erickson started the nreworks for the Nationals with a double over Leibold's head. Judge tripled, Foster singled, Rice singled, Murphy strolled, and Picinich and Shanks followed with safeties to center, five runs scoring.

Rice drew a pass in the eighth inning. Shanks singled, sending Sam to Thanksziving Day, 1901.
